- 3/4 cup passionfruit juice or pineapple juice

Method:

1. In a small saucepan, combine lime juice and sugar.
2. Cook on low heat for a few minutes until sugar is melted.
3. In a blender, combine papaya, mango juice, guava juice, passionfruit juice, and lime/sugar combination.
4. In a large bowl with mixer at medium speed, beat butter and sugar until light and creamy.
5. Blend until smooth and thoroughly combined.
6. Chill and serve over ice.
7. Garnish with papaya slices if desired.

For the Caribbean Rum Punch, add 2 tablespoons rum for every cup of punch. For a smoother punch, you can strain the punch after blending. You can substitute pineapple juice for the passionfruit juice, if desired.
